

SALT LAKE CITY CORPORATION
OFFICE OF THE CITY COUNCIL

June 23, 2009

In response to recent reports that Council Member Eric Jergensen's business has financial difficulties, the Council would like to make the following statement:

When Council Member Jergensen's business' financial difficulties came to our attention several months ago, the City Attorney advised the City Council leadership not to involve themselves in the private business matters of an individual Council Member, except to assure the City's conflict of interest ordinance is being followed. The Council has remained vigilant in working with the City Attorney to assure this ordinance is followed.

It is the Council's intention to remain cooperative with any formal inquiries or any direction that the City Attorney may give us.

Questions on the matter should be referred to the City Attorney:

Ed Rutan, City Attorney

801-535-7788

###